

Land of Confusion

Psalm 88

09/20/2020

The Land Between is a land of perplexity, bewilderment, and disorder where we tend to react in ways we normally wouldn't.

- I. In our confusion we tend to demand _____
- II. In our confusion we tend to assign _____
- III. In our confusion we tend to attack _____
- IV. In our confusion we tend to doubt _____

But, instead of demanding answers, assigning blame, attacking people, and doubting God we should _____ to God and _____ to know Him more.

So What?

- If I am more focused on my _____ than on God's _____, The Land Between will mess with my mind and I will not experience His joy.
- If I am more focused on God's _____ than on my _____, The Land Between will strengthen my heart and I will experience His joy.
